SECOND ANNUAL INSTITUTE ON HUMAN RELATIONS WILL OPEN ON CAMPUS WEDNESDAY

Edith Lloyd, Betty Gum, Joe Armistead,
Jerry Fugate, Frank Holloway, Ike
Schaffer in Panel Discussion

The second annual institute on human relations, opening on the Southern Illinois Normal University campus next Wednesday, October 5, and continuing through Friday, will feature representatives of the S. I. N. U. Adult Education and Extension Committee, the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, and the fifth and seventh Illinois districts of the National Youth Administration.

Initiated last fall to aid the people of Southern Illinois in solving every-day social problems, the program this fall will be divided into two parts: the National Youth Administration section to be conducted in the Little Theatre, and the Natural Resources section, held in Shyrack Auditorium.

Opening the National Youth Administration section at 10:00 in the Little Theatre Wednesday morning, Aubrey Williams, National NYA administrator, will preside over a panel discussion on "The Progress of Federal Aid to Students." Jerry Fugate, Joe Schaffer, Joe Armistead, Edith Lloyd, Frank Holloway, and Betty Gum, representatives of S. I. N. U., will participate in the discussion.

Next will open the Natural Resources section in Shyrack Auditorium at 8:00 a. m. discussing the purposes of the conference.

A joint session at 5 o'clock in Shyrack Auditorium, during which Mr. Williams will speak, will conclude Thursday's program.

The problems of youth in securing jobs will provide the main theme for Thursday's program in the NYA section. At 9:30, during the opening session, Willard E. Parker, personnel officer of Farm Credit Administration, St. Louis, will discuss the topic, "How to Conduct a Counseling Interview," assisted by Miss Sylvia Crosby, supervisor of employment, NYA district five, who was in charge of the organization of the workshop groups on Wednesday.

At 2 o'clock, Dr. McCloskey will speak on "Job Opportunities Today." A following dinner at Mr. McCloskey will be held at the Roberts hotel at 6 o'clock.

Pulliam Will Talk
In the Natural Resources section, Rescoe Pulliam, president of S. I. N. U., will open the day's program with a discussion of "Social and Economic Aspects of Regional Planning." At 2:30, following Mr. Pulliam's address, C. L. Stewart, professor of Agricultural Economics at the University of Illinois, will present "Social and Economic Aspects of Regional Planning."

CONTRACT LET FOR BAPTIST FOUNDATION

A contract was let Wednesday to the E. A. Robinson Construction Company for a new Baptist Foundation to be erected on the site of the old building at the corner of Grand and Thompson.

The first part of the Foundation will consist of about ten or twelve rooms: two offices, a reception room, a classroom, and a large recreation room. An auditorium will be added later. The total outfit represents an expenditure of about $50,000.

The building will be of the Southern Illinois Colonial type, with four large columns in front. Two-story tall brick walls with stone trimmings will be used. Construction will begin in about two weeks, and will probably be completed in about six months, according to Dr. George L. Johnson, dean of the Foundation.

The joint session to be held in Shyrack Auditorium at 5 o'clock. Included on the Friday program of the NYA section will be a speech on "Job Classification" by Seymour Stein, of the Illinois State Employment Service, and sectional meetings of the workshop groups. During the afternoon session, Miss Crosby will give a summary of the workshop results. Dr. Foster will summarize the seminar section, and Dr. D. M. Hall will speak of the topic, "The Progress of Federal Tests—Their Part in Guidance."

40 SOUTHERN KNIGHTS ARE INITIATED

President Pulliam Becomes
Member of Organization

At their regular meeting Monday night forty freshmen and sophomore members were initiated through the formal pledging ceremony by members of the fourth chapter of the Southern Knights. President Rescoe Pulliam also went through the entire pledging ceremony and became a full member of the organization.

The formal initiation of Southern Knights was conducted in the tower of the main building and was presided over by Rescoe Pulliam. After part of the initiation was completed, the pledges were seen sitting on the steps of the gymnasium watching the ceremony. The pledges, who were assisted by Miss Sylvia Crosby, supervisor of employment, NYA district five, who was in charge of the organization of the workshop groups on Wednesday.

THE SPHYNX, the 1939-40 campus directory, will be ready for distribution Thursday, October 11. THE SPHYNX, which was formerly known as the Faculty Student Directory, is a more elaborate booklet with a durable maroon cover. They will be put on sale all day Thursday, October 10, in the foyer of the auditorium, and they will be sold on two cents each at the S. I. N. U. canteen, according to Russell Harrison, editor.

James Melton, Star of Radio, Stage, And Screen, Will Present First SINU Cooperative Concert Program Oct. 16

James Melton, star of radio, opera, concert stage, and screen, will present the first program of the Carbonada Cooperative Concert Association series here Wednesday night, October 16, at 8 o'clock in Shyrack Auditorium.

After making his radio debut as a member of Rex's Tapes Gang in 1927, Melton later joined the Revelers and became first tenor of that well known quartet. In 1931 he went on tour with George Gershwin presenting concerts in all parts of the country.

On the seven Melton had played leading roles in the Warner Bros. productions, "Stars Over Broadway," "Sins of a Love Song," and "Melody for Two." In 1938 he made his opera debut in Cincinnati in the role of Lord Dunsany in "Madame Butterfly." Roles in "La Traviata," "Nathan," and "Mignon" followed. From the start, Melton has been an opera record-breaker. Since the time of his debut in Cincinnati where he spent a five-year mark, he has broken all opera records in Toronto and in Toronto. In New York, where he appeared with the San Carlo Opera company and in Chicago, Melton has firmly established his reputation as one of the leading tenors of the country.

SINU PURCHASES LOCATION FOR NEW BUILDING

State Delay Calls for Drastic Change In Building Plans

This week Southern Illinois Normal University has become larger by twenty-five acres, including Thompson's woods and a piece of land located northwest of the present campus. On this site the new training school will be built, bounded on the west by Lake street, on the east by Normal avenue, on the north by Mill street, and on the south by Grand Avenue. Now that the purchase is complete, plans for clearing and grading the property can go ahead.

Today President Rescoe Pulliam and Dr. Bruce W. Morley are in Chicago meeting with the state architect and the landscape architect who is in charge of the arrangement of the grounds and general placement of buildings.

Plans Have Been Out Drastically Since announcement made last summer, the college, elaborate and complete plans for the new laboratory school have been cut drastically. Two years ago when the original plans were drafted, the money appropriated, it was expected that the $500,000 P. W. A. money, but due to the delay of the state in releasing the money, the college lost the opportunity of getting help from the P. W. A. activities.

In the meantime, building costs have advanced considerably, so that it is now possible to plan for only about half of what had been expected with the same amount of money.

Shops, Cafeteria and Swimming Pool Omitted.

The units that have had to be omitted or postponed are the shops, the cafeteria, and the swimming pool. Besides these, facilities for health education and the training of crippled and other handicapped children have been reduced to a minimum. The work in art had been planned to be carried on in connection with industrial arts. Consequently it has been necessary to omit much of the desirable work in art until such time as it will be possible to have shops.

Even under these restrictions, the new training school should be one of the outstanding ones in America. It will contain in all, approximately 175 rooms, the largest of which will be the auditorium and the gymnasium.

The gymnasium will be of sufficient size that it may be subdivided into two courts that may be used simultaneously. In addition to these rooms, there will be the regular class room units that will be necessary to carry on the work of a school enrolling about 600 students, extending from the kindergarten on university school level through the high school level.

The kindergarten and other lower grades will be housed on the ground floor and will have outside doors leading onto the play courts so that children will have ready access to outdoor play grounds and outdoor class room space. Several kitchenettes, scattered throughout the building, will enable small groups to prepare meals or to eat informally.

ANOTHER ELECTION INVALIDATED

HOW LONG MUST WE WAIT?

The freshman who came into the office last week to complain about not having any place to relax, came in again this week. He's still complaining.

As the parade enters the campus the college girls dressed in kiddy costumes, will join in the parade. The line of march will then proceed to the football field where a huge bonfire, mock funeral ceremony, and a monstrous pep rally will be held. Speeches will be made by Coach Abe Martin, Athletic Director William McAndrew, Co-captains J. T. English and Bill Freeburg, and other players and student leaders.

Immediately following the pep rally, every one will go to the Old Science Gym for the annual kid party. Duetting and games will be provided from 8:15 till 11:00 p. m.

The Axis-Japanese concord, already existing in the eyes of many, is finally on paper. This Concord, realizing the spheres of influence for its signatories, in the words of Secretary Hull, was no shocking surprise, and does not change our status with respect to foreign embroglios. Many of our more enthusiastic Nationalists have found this agreement a threat to our security, and a justification for slogans such as "We'd Better Get Them Before They Get Us". Danger, if it be more than an illusion, demands calm and precise thinking.

Photography Is Fascinating
As Well As Disappointing Hobby

By BILL HORRELL.
Photography is one of the most fascinating, and still one of the most disappointing hobbies that one can adopt. In the face of all the cameras, cameras, cameras everywhere, it is a reward when viewing a potential prize winner, or a technically perfect photo.

A photographer, especially a news photographer, has never a lax moment. His work requires his undivided attention every instant. A photographer's mind is cluttered with technical details—adjusting the aperture, focusing, setting the shutter, calculating the exact position of the subject at a definite instant.

A news cameraman must get the "meat" of the assignment. He must visualize the scene in his mind as it will look to the casual reader as he unfolds his morning paper. After an assignment is covered with probable success, there is a sigh of relief and relaxation until the next day's assignment.

One is still not certain of a perfect picture, there are always the destructive possibilities of an exhausted eye ball, a conspicuous scratch, or excessive grain.

When the exposed print is ducked into the developer, an image comes forth as if by magic. If the wet print comes up to the shutter-bug's expectations, he can hardly wait to show off his work.

This exhibition instinct—in the final analysis—is the real motivation for all photographers. To hear some one say, "Golly, that's some swell photography," or "Nice color, fellow," were really on your toes when you got that shot, is well worth the effort involved. Just as an author experiences a thrill when his novel becomes a best seller, just as a professional athlete exults when an unimpeachable audience lauds him for a fine performance, so a photographer is rewarded when his print is praised.

Photography is more than a routine business of light and shadow. It is an art which involves the creative energies and sound human judgment of a photographer. I wouldn't trade my camera for the world.

When the camera is not a new spring number, but a Chinese poet.

Joseph Leventhal, pianist, received the degree of Doctor of Music at the University of Colorado last month. Instead of an address for the commencement on this occasion, Mr. Leventhal played a program of music—can play for future commencement elsewhere.

Radio, which has gained a number of new friends for the dictionaries, had added a new word—"micro-genic"—denoting a person in sound and applies to a speaker or singer whose voice personality is pleasing to the ear.

Of These I Sing
I am no poet!
I only sing of things I see:
A dewy rose—a wind-kissed tree—
A window's frosty fantasy—
Of these I sing.

The glory of the rising sun,
A beckoning road for a lone swift run,
The toll of a bird when day is done—
Of these I sing.

Not of people can I write,
Not of rippling brooks and the wild game's flight,
And of golden grain in the meadow light—
Of these I sing.

I am no poet!
I only take this thing I see—
Like flowers upon a grassy lee—
And weave them into fantasy—
Of these I sing.

—Lee Shelby.

"B" NATURAL

The return of standard time marks the return to the air of many concerts by well-known symphony orchestras. Sunday marked the return of the Detroit symphony orchestra to the air in the evening and the Radio City Music Hall regular concert at eleven in the morning. Which will be heard Saturday at nine in the evening for the first time this year. Soon to return to the air are the concert by the New York Philharmonic Symphony and the broadcast from the Metropolitan Opera House.

OFF THE PLATTER:
A summer night, moonlight, a beautiful girl, romance, and "Night Music" recorded by the Moonshiners under the direction of Fredrick Franklin. Included in this album are "Heard", "Changin'", "Reckless", "Kisses from the Stars", and "White Doves" all by Ben Marchand, and all this and more.

If I may be permitted to go high-brow, let me suggest to you recent collections that to pass up the record of string quartets recording of the Moonshiners. Quartet number four in Cologne would be a crime. If you can't buy it, stockpile and listen to it, anyway.

Has Carter's Gertie showed you his new bill?

Say, how comes you left out the story about the KDA pledges, swilling the official and moved into a elephant and suggesting to show up for "dinner," also about Tom Dickey being forced by Mr. Green to kiss the said elephant in an unbecomingly spot in Carter's?

Also, where was that Townes story?

Oh, yes, here's a tip that you can pass along: There is a certain young lady on the campus that had better acquire herself a good set of right answers, very slightly used, to be presented to the powers that be, else she will shortly become an inmate.

And here's that Yuhadi story you were trying your worst to remember—Yuhadi! Is the way that makes rindless glass with invisible lenses for the little man who wasn't there to read between the lines of the unwritten law. He also moved around looking up streetless bathing suits and evening gowns. Down with Yuhadi! If you want to know what you know Yuhadi's cutie is Yuhadi, so there.

Well, that's all for this week. More and better later. CWT.

MacDowell Club Rehearses Mendelssohn's "Eljal"

With the advent of another school year, the MacDowell club has begun rehearsing for its annual presentation of an oratorio.

Each year the club has presented the "Messiah" of Handel at one of the local churches. This year the MacDowell club will present an oratorio which has never before been presented. Mendelssohn's "Eljal". The rehearsals will continue through this term until the middle of the winter term.

Two meetings of the girls' rally committee were held Tuesday evening in the Little Theater with a large number of sophomore girls wishing to try out for the fifteen places open to students of this classification. Other sophomore girls interested are urged to talk with any of the members of the rally committee and come out to the meeting next week.

Six members of last year's rally committee are actively organizing this year's program. They are Mary Ellen Evans, co-elected chairman; Dorothy Kelley, Fay Kutzman, Margaret Reiter, Betty Clayton, and Alberta Chavon. Three junior girls have been added to this group to make up the regular committee which represents most of the groups of girls on the campus. New members are Fay Johnson, Betty Stevenson, and Patricia Meyer.

The exact meeting date next week for the girls' rally committee will be announced on the main bulletin board Monday.

The Sixth Column

By ALAN GARDNER
This week, for your comfort, or discomfort, I present the "SIXTH COLUMN" by Edgar Allan Poe (or John Q. Public):

Dear Croc:
I hate you and your column so much that I read it first every Friday. Personally, I think you are a nuisance. Your very existence is a detriment to civilized humanity. Your chatter annoys me. You are a jerk. And then, Croc, you know too much; you see too much; and you talk too much. I know as much as you, but I don't tell everything I know.

I know that Ruth Parra's nickname back in the old home town is "Slow Jive", but do I tell Arthur?

I know there is a certain rat on Carter's Mills who has a certain fellow, Santa, singing "Hey! Be You Pappy-doo Until Your Bigger Comes Along?" But I didn't tell this certain fellow that the big dog was over Sunday, did I?

I know Tizio (the fellow) has fallen out of love for a certain guy at 422 South Main, but am I spilling the dope?

I know that Smilie Jack Davis took his lady love (or she took him) window shopping to one of the city's exclusive women shops, but did I tell him to watch his tuition?

You've been watching Rockett casting wistful eyes at Claudia Madley; have I made a public announcement?

I know why Blackwell is afraid to come on, but do you think I would tell you its because an old friend is in town?

Croc, I like you but your motto's too low. That's why I hate you, "cause your motto's too low." Why were you ever born to menace society? Oh cruel Fate, why didst thou ever precipitate the eventuation of such an unbecomingly being of other members of society in the eternally verdant meadows of Providence?

Disrespectfully yours,
From One Who Would Very Much Like to Evacuate Your Cerebrum From the Place of the Earth.

JUDGE FRED WHAM BELIEVES SINU NEEDS BUILDINGS, MONEY, LAND

Judge Fred L. Wham of the Eastern District of Illinois, United States District Court, spoke at assembly exercises last Tuesday morning. He appeared under the auspices of the Illinois Bar Association for an address appropriate to Constitution Week.

Judge Wham, an alumnus of S. I. N. U., had attended school here about twenty-six years ago in 1901. He finished his undergraduate work at the University of Illinois.

"At that time," according to Judge Wham, "there were only about four hundred students enrolled here."

In an interview after his assembly address, he expressed his sympathy for the great task which the college is undertaking.

"It is quite likely," he continued, "that many of these young men and women would be unable to attend college if it were not for the fact that they have a low cost school near home."

ELLEN MAYNARD WINS ATLANTIC MONTHLY POETRY CONTEST PRIZE

Ellen Maynard, Southern Illinois Normal University senior, is one of twenty-five students from universities and colleges throughout the country to have been recognized as outstanding poets in the creative writing contests of the Atlantic Monthly this year.

Miss Maynard's poem, "Return to the Farm," which was submitted under the sponsorship of Miss Esther Power, a member of the English department, appeared in the literary supplement of the Atlantic Monthly.

Each year the Atlantic Monthly holds three contests for college students to stimulate beginning writers to put their writing into as finished form as possible and to encourage good writing by prize awards. The contests are open to all students registered as using the Atlantic in a course during any part of the school year. This year's prize essay was submitted by a student of the University of Missouri; the prize story from Simmons College, Mass., and the prize poem from the University of Pittsburgh, Pa. In addition to a number of scholarships to the Broad Leaf School of English, Vermont, and the Summer Institute for Social Progress at Wellesley College, Mass., fifty dollars each prize are awarded to the best papers submitted.

An honor student at S. I. N. U., Miss Maynard is a member of Kappa Delta Phi, honorary education and scholarship fraternity; and Sigma Tau Delta, honorary English fraternity.

RETURN TO THE FARM
The dew damp grass wets halfway to my knees,
But neighbors say the lilacs bloom this year.
Scent leads me to the iris I set near—Smoke-pole in dusk that barely lies me near
A Jimli is broken from my maple tree.
Now, seated on the sargassum porch,
I hear
The whippoorwill's low call, as sad
by clear
As when the others all were here with me.
I could only stay!—But not alone!
For loneliness would foster as before Rebellion. Soon I'd come again to dawn.
The whippoorwill's insistent, questioning time
Says he will go unless he finds a male.
—Ellen Maynard.

Inquiring Reporter:
What did you do with your cape, Walter, after the moon eclipsed the sun and put it in a mess?

Sir Walter Raleigh:

TENNIS PRACTICE BEGINS WITH A BANG

Tennis practice began Tuesday afternoon with an enthusiastic group of about eighteen. Two very promising freshmen, Maurine Fender and Barbara Strickland, showed themselves to be good material.

Barbara Byrnes, the instructor, says there's an invitational tournament in the making, although the invitation list at this time is incomplete. Practice is held on Tuesday and Thursday at 4 p. m.

Beginners are welcome; and remember, there's a Tennis club you're eligible for. Come on out and have a good time.

Attention! NEEDED—
Freshmen and sophomores need a little more help. They are interested in hockey. Report to the hockey field at 4 p. m. on Monday and Wednesday. Beginners welcome. Come and learn to play.

Dunbars Restrict Queen Honors to Upperclassmen

The Dunbar Literary Society met in the basement of the Allen Training building Monday, September 30, for a two-hour session.

The society met to discuss the method of election to be used for the Dunbar Homecoming queen. Breaking precedent, the society barred all freshmen from running for the coveted honor; however, upperclassmen are eligible to run.

The queen will, as in previous years, be selected by the general public the night of the dance, but the Dunbar members will select the Made-in-Walton in the near future.

Second, the members met for discussion of the orchestra to be engaged. Milton Larkins' orchestra, which was voted by the society as the orchestra most desired, will be available for the dance but, so far, the organization and Larkins have been unable to come to a definite agreement concerning the price. The band next desired, Jeter-Pillars orchestra, is unavailable because of a previous engagement.

The program committee presented a musical program to the society. First, Rosamie Tribble featured a melody in the piano. She also played "Blue Bird" and "Whispering Grass." Mattie Carless concluded the program by singing "God Bless America." Miss Tribble was the accompanist for Brown and Carless.

Vera Beth Schmidt, Senior at Southern, Is Married Friday

Miss Vera Beth Schmidt, senior from Erlin, was married Friday, September 27, to John H. Berger of Carbondale. The wedding took place at the First Baptist church with Rev. Paul Smith officiating. Ann Schmidt, sister of the bride, and Charles "Tim" were attendants.

The couple took a trip through the Ozarks over the weekend and are now at home at 106 N. Springer.

OH RAZZ:
Someone said, and from then on she was called Mouse. In case you are wondering what this is all about: a freshman out for hockey, tennis, and what-have-you, came to school with the name of Razz and went home with the nickname of Mouse. "So don't forget."

Heddy Is Out to 'Stick' in Hockey
It seems by the way she swings the hockey club head-high, she probably has got into it, because it is the ball you cause to go dead rather than teammates and opponents.

With 'Olive' Mercer found herself at school this past Wednesday morning wearing her bedroom slippers. The wouldn't have discovered it all if it hadn't been that she thought her shoes were "commonly" comfortable. One look was sufficient; and this time, two shoes were insufficient.

It Was Only a Simple Question
But the answer wasn't much better. At any rate Margery Shaw, freshman of this fall, pulled a good one when she was asked such question last Monday night on the hockey field during scrimmages. Standing with a group of others, so that no one could tell what anyone was supposed to be playing (that's why, Marg, we were all doing it), someone asked her what she was, and she calmly answered, "A freshman." (Get it?)

You Have All Heard Of
Lila Ford of the equipment room, how haven't you? Well sometimes she is asked for matches of something—goes to the people who are in and around the gym. However, this week she helped the equipment room. After the usual question, "Do you know anything new and exciting?" she pondered a moment and then said in all seriousness (with the twinkle in the eyes) "Well, Byrnes bought a coke this morning."

There Is Something About Lake Ridgeway
That gets 'em. For last Monday evening Nancy Barker Cooper all most turned into a fourth victim of circumstance and the bewitched middle. From the grapevine, it was learned that she told one of those little stories in a rather comically truthful matter, so that Clements and Mercer (two of reputable proofreaders of their own making) believed her. Her fate was to be the cool green and I do mean green) waters of the lake. However, witnesses discouraged such fiction as, mainly because of Nancy's clean blue shorts.

College Broadcast Relinquishes Time to World Series

There will be no college radio broadcast over WEEQ, Harrisburg, this week. The regularity given to S. I. N. U. from 2:30 to 3 p. m. each Wednesday, will be filled by a description of the world series baseball game.

However, the program previously planned for this week will be presented next Wednesday, October 3. The program will consist of a forum on home decorating by Miss Lucy K. Woody, and Mr. Burnett Sharkey, and vocal solos by Betty Jane Morris and Clifford Albert.

Senior College Possesses Outstanding Hockey Line

After-school hockey is revealing great enthusiasm under the leadership of "Caddy" Van Haver. The senior college team, composed of junior and senior athletes, possess an excellent line of forwards. Included in the line are Cooper, Byrnes, Mercer, and Clements.

The freshmen and sophomores are improving steadily, and are making through the strong junior-senior line for a goal in Monday's game. Florie Keutz does a nice job of rushing the goal, while Mary Lois Zenk of Granite City displays a fine technique at left fullback, and is judged as the outstanding freshman hockey star.

The freshmen and sophomores display a lot of enthusiasm and will improve greatly by practice. The juniors and seniors show a better technique, but less of enthusiasm.

Changes are bright for a dual tournament-senior college vs. junior college, and maybe a three-same with the junior college split into freshman and sophomore teams.

Allan Watson, New Yell King, Starts Drills

Allan Watson, recently elected yell king, has been holding drill sessions with freshmen and sophomore students interested in the positions on the yell staff. The new ones are John Perchenco, James Harris, Harry Trenchard, Verline Withler, Barbara Strickland, Ida Mae Davis, and Mary Myers.

All other students interested are urged to see Watson Wednesday afternoon for over a dozen on the staff.

LINK AND CREW PREPARE UNUSUAL SETTING FOR ANNUAL PLAY

With the Homecoming production of "High Tor" just three weeks away the technical staff, with Robert Link as manager and designer, is starting every effort to prepare the difficult and unusual setting for the play.

The scene is laid on a rugged mountain-top named "High Tor" on the banks of the Hudson, a quarter mile from the "Topper Zug".

Beginning as sunset, and ending through darkness to dawn, the action of the play requires intricate lighting. Not the least of the problems is the production of the storm effect, including the shattering of the airplane helicon.

Some of the staff are taking the ingenuity of the crew. A rock slide, the rumble of thunder, a state police siren are but a few of the "off stage noises" that must be executed.

Although the show is by far the most difficult and ambitious, technically, it was attempted by the S. I. N. U. Little Theatre.

HYBRID CORN FIELD DEMONSTRATION WILL BE HELD ON COLLEGE FARM OCTOBER 7

A hybrid corn field demonstration will be held at the College farm of Southern Illinois Normal University at Carbondale, Monday afternoon, October 7, at 1:30. The farm is located at the city limits of Carbondale on the Giant City road (U. S. 51) and everyone interested in hybrid corn is invited to attend, according to an announcement by R. C. Caswell of the agriculture department.

The 1940 corn testing program is an elaboration of the college's factual venture into hybrid corn testing begun last year. Expansion was possible this year through the cooperation of the University of Illinois and a three way program between a commercial hybrid corn company, a fertilizer company and the college.

The college hybrid corn program is made up of four divisions. The first testing of hybrids most likely to be adapted to Southern Illinois conditions. The hybrid seed was all purchased from retail dealers by Dr. Hachtman of the University of Illinois. The hybrids selected were based upon the requests for favor advices of this area. Fifty-one hybrids are included in this plot in comparison with two open-pollinated yellow and two open-pollinated white varieties. This corn was all hand planted, two kernels to the hill and each hybrid placed in test different 24 hill plots located at random throughout the eight acre field.

The other three tests concern the efficiency in the use of commercial fertilizers on Punk hybrids. Some of the corn was planted on ground with correct clover and manure plowed under ahead of it. This spring, more corn was planted on the same kind of ground, but fertilized 200 pounds to the acre in the hill with a 4-2-4 commercial fertilizer by planter attachment at planting time. In a three-acre test field of hybrid G-335, 10 commercial fertilizers of different plant food analysis having varying proportions of nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium, were applied at the rate of 200 pounds to the acre in the hill in comparison with G-335 receiving no fertilization. In the third test a 10-acre field has been devoted to the effects of one Jack. Green, incidentally, is a former Carbondale student and is a brother of Athletic Manager Paul Green. In high school days Mitchell and Hails were members of Central's 1937 undefeated, unscored upon, eleven.

A creak on the Maroon squad, brought out the fact that six men were prep captains. Making up the list are Bill Freiburg of Princeton, Southern co-captain; Jack Staples of Princeton; Francis Harding of Hoopston; Bill Guiney of Zephyr; Newton Trauband of Wood River; and Lawrence Calneff of Johnston City. Freiburg, Staples and Calneff are backs and Guiney, Trauband and Harding linemen.

An early season runner of roses goes to freshman Calneff, however, an unprovoked such an award may be for a football man. The newcomer, per forming at fullback, against Evansville, turned in a fine defensive game besides handling himself creditably in offense.

due to the one yard line but on the next play Southern was eager and suffering. Five yard penalty for off-sides. Two passes, Crawshaw to English, were incomplete, and on fourth down with six yards to go for a score. Crawshaw went off tackle but was stopped inches from pay territory. Montgomery again booted Evansville out of danger.

Fourth Quarter.

Prettiest run of the day was performed by Bill Townes early in the fourth stanza. Receiving a Hossner punt, Townes cut for the sidelines. His blockers took on the defensive ends and he eluded three would-be tacklers by some clever twisting and turning. Reversing his field, Townes continued to the Evansville 27.

A little later Evansville launched their second thrust. Taking possession on the 30 yard line after a Southern pass into the end zone, the Hoosiers gained to yards through an official's oversight. With less than three minutes of the game remaining, Evansville fooled the Southern team with the old Statue of Liberty play which netted them 26 yards. On the next play, Davall passed to Bailey, who apparently downed but he managed to lateral to Captain Goebel, who never missed a stride and went over the real line standing up. The try for placement was wide.

scoreless tie by Culver-Stouton in their initial game but last Saturday they triumphed Rose Polytechnic Institute of Terre Haute by a 20-0 score. The Maroons' only game resulted in a 127 setback by Evansville College. Stuber also has the edge in returning letters, 15 to 15.

To face the Missouri aggression, Mentor Abe Martin named the same starting lineup that opened the Evansville game with two exceptions. Charles Frey, veteran guard, will be shifted to center in place of Ray Eberland, while Bob Edwards, Monmouth College transfer, will step in at right guard in James Casagrev's spot. Flanking the line are Co-captain J. T. English and "Iron Man" Marion Trauband with Herman Miles and Bob Smythe at the tackle posts. Bill Guiney and Edwards are slated for barbed duty with Frey installed at the pivot post.

President Rescoe Pulliam is in Chicago today, consulting with the Public Relations Committee of the Illinois Agricultural Association. While in Chicago, he will confer with Joseph F. Stooten, state architect, on plans for the new training center.

Yesterday, Mr. Pulliam addressed the Morgan county teachers' institute in Jacksonville on the subjects, "What is the American High School For?" and "Some Principles to Remember as We Teach."

Freiburg at the other half, and chunky Lawrence Calneff at the plunging fullback slot.

Stuber will undoubtedly send in all veteran linemen with Branch and Kles at ends, Richardson and Allen at tackle, Turner and Patchett at guards and living at center. Wolfe will get the call at the fullback position in place of the injured McLean with Crews, Heeb, and Mitchell rounding out the starting eleven.
